SHERIFF'S OFFICE CONDUCTS MON VALLEY WARRANT SWEEP

PITTSBURGH, PA - Sheriff William Mullen announces the apprehension of twenty-three (23) fugitives in the Mon Valley area during a warrant sweep conducted by sheriff's deputies and partnered with the FBI over the course of the day.

Amongst the apprehended fugitives, deputies cleared sixteen (16) criminal bench warrants, thirteen (13) family division warrants, and three (3) magisterial warrants. Additionally, two of the fugitives were wanted for state parole violations. In regards to the family division warrants, the thirteen warrants amassed for $142,552.30 in back arrearages.

Over the last year, Sheriff Mullen has directed deputies to conduct warrant sweeps in South Pittsburgh/South Hills, East Hills and twice in Mon Valley. Over the course of these sweeps, deputies have apprehended 115 fugitives wanted in Allegheny County.
