FIREARMS FUGITIVE FOUND HIDING IN EAST HILLS ATTIC

PITTSBURGH, PA – Sheriff William P. Mullen announces the apprehension of Nathaniel Bunn, 29 years of age from the East Hills section of Pittsburgh. In addition to Bunn, his wife, Vanessa Goodlow, 27 years of age was also arrested due to today's incident.

Bunn was featured on the Sheriff's Office's "Firearm Related Crimes' Fugitives" page and has been wanted since October 2015 on a Violation of Probation/Parole from a 2005 firearms conviction. This morning, deputies developed information that Bunn was staying at an address in the Prospect Terrace development, located in East Pittsburgh. Deputies attempted to make contact with residents on multiple occasions to no avail. However, deputies could hear movement inside the home, as if there were residents. Eventually the entryway was breached and deputies found Goodlow, along with two children inside the residence. Goodlow repeatedly explained that Bunn was not at the address and had not been for sometime. While completing a safety search of the home, deputies found Bunn, covered in insulation, hiding in the attic of the home. Bunn was taken into custody, without incident. In addition, Goodlow was arrested and charged with Hindering Apprehension. Allegheny County Children, Youth and Families (CYF) were notified regarding the children at the address.

Both Bunn and Goodlow were transported to the Allegheny County Jail, where they will be lodged. Bunn will be held without bond, due to his violation, while Goodlow will await arraignment on the new charges.
