HOMICIDE BY VEHICLE FUGITIVE ARRESTED

Pittsburgh PA ----- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Clairton man who had been on the run for more than two years and was featured as one of the most wanted criminals in the county has been taken into custody and is back in the Allegheny County Jail.

In January 2020, 28-year-old Daquan Thompson was convicted following a non-jury trial before Judge Bruce Beemer of several charges, including homicide by vehicle while DUI, in connection with a fatal accident. Thompson failed to show for a sentencing hearing following his conviction and has been a fugitive ever since.

Earlier this week, the Pennsylvania State Police received an anonymous tip regarding Thompson which was then relayed to our detectives. Thompson was located in Uniontown and taken into custody by our detectives without incident on Wednesday, September 28, 2022.
