McKEES ROCKS MAN ARRESTED ON MULTIPLE WARRANTS

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that deputies have arrested 29-year-old Herkley Fields of McKees Rocks on several outstanding warrants.

Multiple agencies have been looking for fields for several weeks, including McKeesport Police who charged Fields on October 9, 2022, with aggravated assault after it was reported that he threw hot cooking grease onto a female in front of her 6-year-old son. The victim was taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment of burns.

Fields was also facing bench warrants connected to other incidents in McKeesport in March and June of this year and a March arrest in the City of Pittsburgh.

This week deputies developed information that led them last night to a residence on Glen Mawr Street in Sheraden. When deputies knocked on the door, they noticed a male get off the couch, lock the front door and move to the second floor. The male matched the description of Fields and following several more knocks and announcements of a warrant, detectives entered the residence. Fields attempted to flee the residence out of a back door but was met by additional deputies and was taken into custody without further incident.

Fields is in the Allegheny County Jail facing numerous charges from the multiple warrants including simple assault, harassment and flight to avoid apprehension along with drug and firearms offenses.
