BEECHVIEW MAN FACING MULTIPLE CHARGES ARRESTED ON BENCH WARRANT

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a man facing multiple charges out of Scott Township has been arrested on a bench warrant.

34-year-old Jonathan Packard of Beechview was classified a fugitive on March 6, 2023 when he failed to appear before Judge Jill Rangos to face drug and firearms charges. The charges were filed in December of last year following a Greentree Road traffic stop by Scott Township Police.

This week, detectives from our office developed information that Packard was at a residence on Knox Avenue in the City of Pittsburgh. When detectives approached the residence Friday morning, Packard initially hid in the attic of the residence before surrendering without incident and being transported to the Allegheny County Jail.

In the process of making the arrest, 2 additional firearms were discovered which will result in 2 new firearms charges.
