MAN WANTED ON NUMEROUS BENCH WARRANTS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh man with 5 outstanding bench warrants has been taken into custody.

28-year-old Khyree Givner's bail was revoked at the end of January this year on an active case involving endangering the welfare of children and he also failed to appear on a second active case involving a firearms charge. Additionally, Givner has 2 outstanding warrants involving probation violations on 2 separate cases and an escape warrant.

Sheriff's Office Detectives tracked Givner to a residence on Woodlow Street in Crafton Heights and upon arriving at the residence earlier today, determined that there was movement inside. Detectives gained entry to the residence and located Givner on the 2nd floor. Givner initially refused to come downstairs but subsequently changed his mind and was taken into custody, after which he was transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
