LICENSE TO CARRY CONCEALED PERMIT OFFICE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION IN THE COURTHOUSE

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus is pleased to announce that the office responsible for issuing license to carry concealed firearms permits has a new location at the Allegheny County Courthouse. The office remains on the courtyard level of the courthouse but has switched sides and can now be accessed through the Forbes Avenue archway entrance to the courtyard.

“My staff and I have put a good deal of effort into ensuring that the process to obtain a concealed carry permit is streamlined, efficient and convenient for everyone,” said Sheriff Kraus. “The new location is a much better and larger space, not only for my staff, but also for those wishing to get a new permit or renew an existing permit.”

For those individuals who cannot get to the courthouse during regular business hours to obtain a permit, Sheriff Kraus has scheduled a number of Saturday satellite permit events for the rest of this year in communities throughout Allegheny County. The list of dates and locations can be accessed with this link:
