HILL DISTRICT MAN WITH MULTIPLE WARRANTS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Hill District man facing multiple warrants has been taken into custody.

43-year-old Dean Marbury has been a fugitive since October 2021 when probation violation bench warrants were issued by Judge David Cashman concerning two convictions that Marbury has involving charges that include firearms violations, aggravated assault and possession with intent to deliver. The bench warrants were issued after Marbury was charged with simple assault domestic violence in September of 2021.

Detectives from our office developed information this week that Marbury was inside of a residence on Bryn Mawr Road. When detectives arrived at the location Thursday morning, they initially had difficulty gaining entrance to the residence but eventually made it inside using a second-floor window. Once inside, detectives located Marbury inside of a hidden compartment beneath an aquarium.

Once located, Marbury was arrested without further incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
