MT. OLIVER WOMAN FACING BURGLARY CHARGE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Mt. Oliver woman, charged with burglary, has been taken into custody.

50-year-old Tammie Turner was charged in October 2022 with breaking into the basement of a building on Saint Joseph Street and stealing property worth 300 dollars. Following her arraignment, she was released on an unsecured bond. In March of this year, Turner failed to appear in court, forfeiting that bond, and a bench warrant was issued for her arrest.

Earlier today, detectives from our office received information that Turner was seen in the 400 block of Brownsville Road. Our office reached out to Mt. Oliver Police who were able to locate and detain Turner without incident, after which detectives from our office transported her to the Allegheny County Jail.
