WESTMORELAND COUNTY MAN SURRENDERS ON HOMICIDE BY VEHICLE CHARGE

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Westmoreland County man, wanted in connection with a fatal crash last year, has surrendered to authorities.

28-year-old Troy Modrak of Irwin was charged earlier this week by Pennsylvania State Police with a number of counts including homicide by vehicle while DUI, aggravated assault by vehicle while DUI and involuntary manslaughter. The charges were filed in connection with a July 2022 accident in which Modrak is accused of traveling the wrong way in the eastbound lanes of the Parkway East near the Business 22 exit. The 3-vehicle accident took the life of Thomas Ligon.

Earlier today, Modrak surrendered himself to deputies from our office at the Municipal Courts Building, after which he was processed into the Allegheny County Jail.
