CONVICTED FELON FROM WILKINSBURG TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a convicted felon from Wilkesburg has been arrested on multiple warrants.

22-year-old Michael Lyons has been a fugitive since November 2022 when a bench warrant was issued by Judge Edward Borkowski saying that Lyons had violated a 10-year probation sentence connected to a conviction for conspiracy to commit third degree murder. Additionally, Lyons is currently the subject of 2 active warrants charging him with simple assault and firearms violations on the first warrant and aggravated assault on the second warrant.

Detectives from our office developed information this week that Lyons was inside of a residence along Campbell Street in Wilkesburg. After arriving at the location this morning, they were able to apprehend Lyons without incident and transport him to the Allegheny County Jail.
