WILKISNBURG MAN SUSPECTED OF FIRING SHOTS OUTSIDE ROSS TOWNSHIP TARGET STORE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that 21-year-old Kenneth Sharp-Haymon of Wilkinsburg, wanted in connection with a Tuesday shooting incident outside the Target store in Ross Township, has been taken into custody.

Detectives from our office have been working in conjunction with Ross Township detectives for the last 48 hours in an effort to locate Sharp-Haymon. Detectives from our office developed information today concerning a vehicle associated with the suspect and the vehicle was located late this afternoon.

Deputies followed the vehicle before initiating a traffic stop on First Avenue downtown at which point Sharp-Haymon was arrested without incident.

Following the arrest, the suspect was transported to the Ross Township police station and placed in the custody of Ross Township detectives.
