DUQUESNE MAN WANTED ON SEVERAL WARRANTS FOUND HIDING UNDER BED

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Duquesne man, previously arrested by our office last September, was arrested again today after being found hiding under a bed.

32-year-old Nicholas Lomax was listed as a fugitive earlier this month when three bench warrants were issued for probation violations on two cases out of Westmoreland County involving fleeing and eluding and one case in Allegheny County involving stalking and simple assault.

Additionally, Lomax has an active warrant out of McKeesport for gun and drug charges stemming from a vehicle accident earlier this month.

Detectives from our office developed information this week that Lomax was at the Mon View Heights Apartments in West Mifflin. Shortly after noon today, detectives arrived at the apartment in question and were able to locate Lomax hiding underneath a bed. Lomax was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
