PITTSBURGH MAN CHARGED ACCUSED OF STABBING AND STRANGULATION TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh man, facing charges of aggravated assault and strangulation, has been taken into custody.

37-year-old Darrell Eley was charged by Wilkinsburg Police in November 2024 with aggravated assault in connection with the stabbing of another man in the head. That charge resulted in a bench warrant being issued for a probation violation involving a guilty plea to firearms charges in 2016. Additional bench warrants were issued involving a state parole violation and failure to appear in two separate cases. A second active warrant was filed this week by Pittsburgh Police charging Eley with strangulation during a domestic incident with his girlfriend.

Detectives from our office developed information this week that Eley was at an apartment in Swissvale. Detectives arrived at the apartment Tuesday afternoon, arrested Eley without incident and transported him to the Allegheny County Jail.
