FIVE YEAR FUGITIVE LOCATED AND ARRESTED IN WEST VIRGINIA

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Fayette County man, declared a fugitive nearly five years ago, has been located and arrested in West Virginia.

47-year-old Craig Owen David was declared a fugitive in November 2020 after failing to show for a pre-trial conference on a case involving a firearms charge filed by the Jefferson Hills Police Department in August 2020.

This week, detectives from our office developed credible information that David was in the Morgantown, West Virginia area. Further investigation of the information confirmed that David was residing in an apartment on Brookhaven Road in Morgantown.

Detectives reached out for assistance from the Monongalia County Sheriff's Office and deputies from that office were able to locate and identify David and he was placed into custody without incident shortly after 8:30am Wednesday morning.

David was transported to the North Central Regional Jail in West Virginia where he will remain pending extradition back to the Allegheny County Jail.
