PITTSBURGH MAN ON THE RUN FOR THREE MONTHS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh man, who has been a fugitive since the end of May, has been apprehended.

Two bench warrants were issued for 45-year-old Reginald Myers on May 28th of this year after he violated conditions of his bond in connection with two active cases, one involving firearms charges out of Pittsburgh and the other involving receiving stolen property and reckless endangerment out of Hampton Township. Additionally, Myers has two active arrest warrants, one for escape for leaving Renewal without authorization and the other for receiving stolen property.

Detectives from our office this week developed information that Myers was located inside of a residence along Diana Street in Pittsburgh. Detectives arrived at the residence shortly before noon today and after entering the residence, found Myers hiding in an upstairs closet.

Myers was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
