BEECHVIEW MAN CHARGED WITH AGGRAVATED ASSAULT APPREHENDED AFTER FAILING TO APPEAR FOR TRIAL

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Beechview man who failed to show for trial has been apprehended.

34-year-old Daniel Simcox was arrested in September 2024 by Pittsburgh Police and charged with aggravated assault, burglary and terroristic threats. The charges were the result of an incident in which Simcox confronted an acquaintance of his ex-girlfriend and proceeded to assault the victim, slamming them to the floor and kicking them in the head and ribs multiple times while verbally threatening to kill the victim. When Simcox failed to show for a non-jury trial involving the charges at the end of July this year, a bench warrant was issued for failure to appear.

Detectives from our office developed information that Simcox was residing at a previous address along Broadway Avenue in Beechview and arrived at the address earlier today. After gaining entry to the residence, Simcox was located inside, taken into custody without incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
