PITTSBURGH WOMAN WHO PLEADED GUILTY TO ENDANGERING THE WELFARE OF HER TWO-MONTH-OLD CHILD ARRESTED ON PAROLE VIOLATION

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh woman who previously pleaded guilty in a case involving injuries to her own child, has been arrested on a parole violation.

29-year-old Kyla Ferguson pleaded guilty to one count of endangering the welfare of children in March 2020 in a case in which her two-month-old child sustained a number of injuries. Following the plea, Ferguson was sentenced to 16 to 32 months in jail followed by 5 years probation. On April 7th of this year, a bench warrant was issued for Ferguson for a parole violation on that case. Ferguson also has an active warrant out of the City of Pittsburgh charging her with taking part in a shooting and stabbing in Northview Heights in December 2025.

Detectives from our office developed information that Ferguson was inside of an apartment in Bedford Dwellings and arrived at the location earlier today. After announcing their presence, detectives took Ferguson into custody without incident and transported her to the Allegheny County Jail.
