PITTSBURGH MAN WANTED FOR CAR WASH STABBING TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Pittsburgh man wanted for a stabbing incident at a car wash has been taken into custody.

46-year-old Joseph Brandt was charged with aggravated assault earlier this week by Pittsburgh Police after a man was stabbed with a large knife at a car wash on Bajo Street off of Becks Run Road. The victim sustained a serious leg injury requiring hospitalization.

Detectives from our office developed information that Brandt was at a residence in Stowe Township and approached the residence along 10th Street earlier today. After making numerous announcements, detectives made verbal contact with Brandt who initially refused to exit the residence. After several minutes of talking, Brandt subsequently surrendered, was taken into custody without incident and transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
