TURTLE CREEK WOMAN ON THE RUN FOR THREE MONTHS APPREHENDED ON SIX DIFFERENT WARRANTS

Pittsburgh PA ---- Sheriff Kevin M. Kraus announced today that a Turtle Creek woman who has been a fugitive for three months has been taken into custody on six outstanding bench warrants.

24-year-old Nyzjayah Majors has been a fugitive since the beginning of July when bench warrants were issued for probation violations involving five different cases where she pleaded guilty to either robbery or conspiracy charges. Additionally, a sixth bench warrant was issued in August when she failed to appear for trial in a case involving firearms charges.

Detectives from our office developed information that Majors was inside of an apartment in the 1100 block of Bower Hill Road. Detectives arrived at the location this morning and after confirming that Majors was inside, detectives entered the apartment, came into contact with Majors and she was taken into custody without incident.

Two males and a female were also in the apartment and one of the males, Jordan Johnson, was discovered to have an active detainer on him from the Pennsylvania State Parole Department. Johnson was also taken into custody and both he and Majors were transported to the Allegheny County Jail.
